You'll Need Fruit Jars About This Time.

Quite a number of makes—but the best in their respective classes are the MASON and the GILCHRIST.

The GILCHRIST, as you may know, has the wide mouth with the patent top which excludes all air.

The MASON is the leading jar of the ordinary top kind. It has proven its worth by years of service.

Mason Jars, 48c, 59c and 75c per dozen for pints, quarts and half gallon sizes.

Gilchrist Jars, 89c, $1 and $1.10.

Ice-Cream Freezers Now in Order.

BLIZZARD, GEM, SNOWBALL and 20th CENTURY—all good makes—the SNOWBALL being a home production.

The 20th CENTURY is a radical departure from ordinary makes, in that no crank turning is required. Great saving of labor.

COALERS CLASH AND RATES CUT

Richmond Benefits by N. & W. Meeting C. & O. Coal Cut.

CAN USE POCAHONTAS COAL

Reduced Rate on Steam Coal Goes Into Effect on July 24th.

Richmond can hereafter use Pocahontas coal to her heart's content. It is true that many Richmond manufacturers have long desired to use that coal, preferring it for making steam, etc., in their establishments to any other, but they could not use it to advantage for the simple reason that there was some kind of an agreement between the Norfolk and Western road, which handles the Pocahontas coal, and the Chesapeake and Ohio that kept the Pocahontas out of Richmond unless Richmond manufacturers wished to pay a fancy freight rate on it.

It is understood that Norfolk has also been denied the privilege of using coal from along the Chesapeake and Ohio road, and that the agreement between the two roads must interfere with each other's coal business. Whatever the agreement was, it is no longer an agreement. The two roads have fallen out, rates have been cut, and now Richmond can get steam coal from the two coal fields at the same rate of freight, that is, Richmond can do this on and after July 24th.

Order Promulgated.

The following order, promulgated in this city yesterday, fully explains the situation. The order is as follows: "The Norfolk and Western Railway Company, Norfolk, Va., July 11, 1906. Mr. F. D. Meaney, D. P. A., Richmond, Va.: Dear Sir—I beg to advise you that we will make a deduction of one cent per ton in our rates on coal to Richmond, Va., effective July 24th. The rate will be from Pocahontas and Tuscarora districts, $1.80 per ton; from Clinch Valley and Rockwell districts, $1.90; from Kanawha district, $1.70 per ton, 2,000 pounds. Yours truly, T. D. Hootch, Coal and Coke Fuel Agent."

Under the new rules of organization, just promulgated, the Southern Railway, four general districts instead of two, as heretofore.

Four Districts.

These districts, each of which will be under a general manager, will be as follows: Northern District—Headquarters at Danville, consisting of the Washington, Danville, Richmond and Norfolk divisions. Eastern District—Headquarters at Charlotte, consisting of the Charlotte, Columbia, Charleston and Jacksonville divisions.

Middle District—Headquarters at Knoxville, consisting of the Asheville, Knoxville, Nashville and Atlanta divisions.

Western District—Headquarters at Birmingham, consisting of the Birmingham, Memphis and Mobile divisions.

Richmond still lingers on a side track, so far as the Southern is concerned, and as the new rules of organization are being put into effect, it is expected that Richmond will be made a part of one of the four districts.

OLD FIRST HAS A HAPPY REUNION

are numbered among those who would now fight for the Stars and Stripes, should occasion arise they could not refrain from recalling many a stirring tale of the strife and from telling how many times they circumvented and whipped the enemy, how they made stolen marches in the dead of night and how they endured the hardships and the suffering of that long and arduous campaign. It told of that greatest pride that they told how they had never disturbed a farm house, molested a woman or ill-treated a man when they had advantage to do so in the enemy's country.

Story-telling.

The earliest part of the day was devoted to story-telling, the recalling of half-forgotten tales, and at about 4 o'clock they gathered themselves around the camp table and sat them down to enjoy the Brunswick stew and other delicacies that had been prepared for their enjoyment. At the conclusion of their program, Col. Loehr, in the name of the contractors, took the ranks of the great majority, after having crossed the last river, made their last day's march, and conquered the enemy who awaited them all. The names of those who had answered the last call during the last year, and now rest in their last sleep, are as follows: Daniel C. Mayo, Company D; Captain John H. Greener, Company H; Captain James B. Phillips, Company A; William F. Ford, Company G; John H. Hester, Company C. The roll call was listened to with the greatest reverence, and many stories were told in honor of the brave, dead men.

Captain Lamb Speaks.

Then Colonel Palmer introduced Hon.

John Lamb, who had been invited to address the camp. Captain Lamb lauded the names of the First Virginia Regiment and referred to the many heroisms that had made them famous in the Army of Northern Virginia. He was especially pleased to say that those who had been a part of the Northern writers over the justice of the cause for which the Southerners fought, and regretted that there is a tendency on the part of some of the youth of the Southland to believe that their sires had fought wrongly and without just cause. It remains, he thought, for Southern writers to take the matter in hand and to teach the rising generation that the battle-scarred veterans are worthy of all the honor that has been accorded them during the past forty years, and to keep alive the memory of the causes for which they laid down their lives. He related many incidents that had characterized the bravery of the "Old First" during the Civil War, and said that he was proud to be with them and of the honor to address them on their annual reunion.

Colonel Morton Mayne was the next speaker. He spoke briefly and to the point, expressing his pleasure at being able to attend once again the historical reunions. Mr. E. C. Scott, Captain Sullivan and Colonel Loehr were also among the speakers, and all referred in gracious, congratulatory and pleasing terms to the history and record of the "Old First." There were also a few visitors present with the regular members of the regiment, and they were accorded a cordial greeting by the members of the First Virginia.

Veterans Attending.

Those present were as follows: Colonel F. H. Lankey, Major B. Howard, Lieutenant Logan S. Robins, Lieutenant William M. Lawson, Quartermaster-Sergeant William Harper, Doctor Henry C. Seavey, George C. Cormick, John Lloyd, Harry R. Bonn, Thomas E. Stratton, T. S. Porter, D. A. Jarvis, August Boltz, R. W. James, H. M. Walcott, N. V. Bowe, Jacob Wachter, Theodore J. Robertson, J. B. Anglin, Henry C. Ashby, James C. Via, Richard L. Jones, Sergeant C. T. Loehr, Meyer Anglin, George W. Huband, William Tremer, Valentine Brown, R. C. Morrisette, W. N. Anderson. Visitors—Colonel Morton Mayne, Hon. John Lamb, James T. Gray, Major Lamb, Werner, Captain J. C. Thompson, A. C. Tomlinson, A. S. Sandridge, C. D. Loehr, Everett Redford, John F. Wiley, Edward S. Waymack.

RAILROAD CLERK IS SENT TO GRAND JURY

Thomas B. Johns, Employed in C. & O. Offices Here, Faces Serious Charge.

Thomas B. Johns, a young man twenty-five years old, was arrested yesterday by Detective Charles Gibson, on the charge of defaulting in the sum of $100, from the Southern Railway.

He was employed as freight agent at Homeville, when he is alleged to have absconded with the money, having been in charge of that station only a short while.

Johns was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Special Agent in Charge, P. O. Dexter, of the American Surety Company, New York, the bonding and firm having already paid the sum he defaulted. The prisoner was taken to Chief Vernon's office, where he was turned over to Constable Tilly, of Sussex, who took him back to Waverly yesterday afternoon. The preliminary hearing took place at once, and Johns was sent to the grand jury. Failing to give bond, he was given over to the custody of an officer.

At the time of his arrest, Johns was employed in the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad offices, serving as clerk to car conductor, under Mr. Sig. He is now being working here only three or four weeks when arrested.

TALK OF DISMANTLING CONDEMNED WALLS

Significant Conference of Henrico Supervisors and Architect Was Held Yesterday.

A conference as to dismantling the condemned walls of the new Henrico jail was held at the courthouse yesterday by Messrs. Charles K. Bryant, architect; L. O. Wendenburg, Commonwealth's Attorney; and William B. Frayser, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors.

Mr. Frayser read the following specifications, which he took to be decisive of the expense of the contractors, to remove said rejected work or materials and replace said work or materials in accordance with said plans and specifications. It was determined that Mr. Bryant at once notify the Stewart Iron Works, who are constructing the building, advising them of the situation. Upon hearing from them the walls will be torn down.

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Condition of Young Latham Quite Serious at a Late Hour.

ELECT PRINCIPAL TO-NIGHT

Mrs. Peebles Will Remain With Her Mother—Personals and Briefs.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 112 Hull Street. The condition of the young man, the son of Mr. L. M. Latham, of this city, who was shocked by electricity while telephoning at Alexandria, Tuesday afternoon, was not improved last night. Some fears are entertained as to his recovery.

Mr. Latham, father of the young man, returned to Manchester last night about 7 o'clock, from the bedside of his son. He left Alexandria at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and at that time thought that his son was improved.

Mrs. John Latham, who is at the bedside of her husband, telephoned late last night that his condition was improved, and that he was suffering greatly with a pain in his head. He is conscious only at short intervals.

Mr. Latham said last night that the shock of the electric current did not bruise or disfigure his son as much as had been reported. There was only slight burn behind the left ear. The report that there was a lightning storm at the time the young man used the phone was evidently a mistake, said Mr. Latham, for he has learned that the storm was over at the time, and that the sun was shining very brightly.

Mrs. Latham, mother of the young man, will leave on the early morning train to be at the bedside.

John Latham was very popular in Manchester, and scores of friends are anxious as to his recovery.

Will Remain at Home.

"All of the furniture that my husband purchased on the installment plan has been taken back by the furniture men, and I am living with my parents," said Mrs. Luther E. Peebles last night, when seen by a reporter.

She has heard nothing from her husband of two months since his sudden disappearance Sunday morning. The note that he left, informing her that he was off for Toledo, Ohio, to escape his creditors, she still has, and will keep it.

"I shall return to my place of employment in Richmond after the summer. Mother will leave for the country very shortly, and I will keep house while she is away. Then I will go back to work and forget all about this trouble," said the young, bride-to-be, only twenty years of age, and very handsome.

Elect Principal To-Night.

The School Board will meet in special session to-night and elect a principal to succeed Mr. A. R. Fitzgerald, who will leave to-day for the country. The meeting promises to be of very great interest, and there will likely be many applications for the position.

While it is generally conceded that the members of the board are agreed upon the man to be elected, the names of those who have applied for the position are withheld until the meeting to-night. Mr. Fitzgerald was principal of the school for nineteen years, and resigned this year when he was elected to a more responsible and a more lucrative position in Richmond. Universal regret is felt that he will no longer be at the head of the High School in the city.

Struck White Children.

Carrie Thomas, a negro woman, was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of beating the two small children of Mr. J. H. Perdue, of No. 144 Bushbridge Street. Patrolman Moore made the arrest and took the woman to the station-house. She was bailed later in the evening.

The warrant for her arrest was sworn out by the father of the children. He alleges that his little daughter and little son went into her home, and that she beat them with a stick, and that she took away from them, and that the woman took a broom handle and struck both of her children.

If the charge is proven against the negro she will fare badly at the hands of the Mayor this morning.

Personals and Briefs.

Arthur Little, a negro who lives at No. 200 East Second Street, dropped dead from paralysis of the heart at Fifth and Hull Streets yesterday morning. Coroner Brooker yesterday held an inquest and deemed an inquest unnecessary.

James Macon, a negro, charged with stealing $800 worth of goods, was yesterday arrested by Detective Charles Gibson, on the charge of stealing a trunk from a negro in Richmond. He was turned over to the Richmond authorities.

Mr. Henry Boettig, assistant postmaster of the city, left yesterday for Michigan in search of health, but found that the climate did not agree with him.

David Watkins, a negro, the successful yesterday morning on the charge of stealing a trunk from a negro in Richmond. He was turned over to the Richmond authorities.

To Prevent Rabies.

Masters I. L. and P. G. Dunlap, fifteen and seventeen years old, sons of J. H. Dunlap, of Canby, N. C., have left the city, beyond the city limits, having completed the protective inoculations of the Pasteur treatment for the prevention of rabies. The boys were arrested yesterday morning on the charge of stealing their own dog from the city, and were taken to the city jail. The dog was found in the city, and was taken to the city jail.

There is every reason to believe that the young men of the city were in the city, and that the dog was found in the city, and was taken to the city jail.

A FOX-HUNTER.

Rev. Dr. McDaniel Enjoying Albarnele Hospitality.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SHADWELL, VA., July 18.—Rev. G. W. McDaniel, D. D., of the University of Virginia, arrived in Charlottesville yesterday afternoon, and for several days will be at the residence of Mr. L. J. Hall, of Charlottesville. Last evening they were entertained at the summer residence of Mr. R. D. Hight, of Charlottesville, where he is engaged for the summer.

Dr. McDaniel called upon the venerable Mr. A. F. Fox, a blind octogenarian, who is still a member and a senior warden (honorary) of Dr. McDaniel's church.

To-morrow morning he will engage in a hunt with Messrs. Mack Pogo, and others in the Red Hill neighborhood. Before leaving the county Dr. McDaniel will visit at Ash Lawn, the former residence of the late Walter Massey, the family of the late Walter Massey. The doctor will go on Friday night to Charlottesville, and will be in the city on Saturday to make address at a picnic, which is expected to be a representative gathering of the county.

Minister Ill.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RED HILL, ALBEMARLE CO., VA., July 18.—Rev. J. B. Bowden, of Unity, Southampton county, has been very sick at the home of his brother, Rev. J. H. Bowden, of Charlottesville, for several days. He is now at the home of his brother, Rev. J. H. Bowden, of Charlottesville, for several days.

Dr. McDaniel called upon the venerable Mr. A. F. Fox, a blind octogenarian, who is still a member and a senior warden (honorary) of Dr. McDaniel's church.

Jump in City List.

The most noticeable jump among the city competitors has been made by Misses Camille Phillips and Dora Burton. The former young lady was placed in communication last Sunday by the Outing Man with the legal lady of her late grandfather, who died recently and left her the handsome legacy of $2,000. Her address in the city was unknown, and, seeing the name in connection with The Times-Dispatch Outing Towns contest, inquiries were made, which resulted in the location of the young lady, the news of the legacy reaching her on Sunday evening. This young lady's mother, who has now got into the city, and has a good show to come still higher. It is a hot contest for first honors and it will not surprise their friends if Misses Martin and Gordon regain the premier position to-day.

State.

Misses Lizzie Haley, Ontario, Va., and Annie Garner, Drapersville, Va., were the winners of the $12,414. Misses Lucy Wood, Amelia, Va., and Laura Boyd, Farmville, Va., won $9,207. Misses E. M. Topping, Albemarle, Va., and K. C. Fowler, Gloucester, Va., won $5,878. Mrs. R. W. Price and Miss Sallie Bldgood, Petersburg, Va., won $4,866. Misses Sadie Southall and Annie

If You Knew

What we know you would always say "Schlitz beer" when you order. If you could visit our brewery—as thousands have done—you would insist on the beer that is brewed here.

You would want a beer clean—as ours is. You would want it filtered and aged as we do it. You would want to know that every bottle is sterilized—that it is pure—as is every bottle of Schlitz.

Ask for the Brewery Bottling. Common beer is sometimes substituted for Schlitz. To avoid being imposed upon, see that the cork or crown is branded

GREAT SHAKE-UP IN STATE CONTEST

Yesterday's Mails Brought Vast Number of Votes, Which Changed Positions.

HEIRESS FORGING TO FRONT

Miss Phillips, Who Recently Came in for Legacy, Makes Notable Gains.

There has been such a shake-up in the State during the last twenty-four hours that it will be almost impossible to comment on it. The first real big batch to arrive yesterday was one from the Misses Topping and Folkes, the tall-endors, who at a single bound have jumped into third place, yesterday's leaders dropping into fourth position. The Misses Haley and Gardner, going from fifth to first, whilst the Misses Wood and Boyd improve their standing by one place. As things now look it will be a close contest for ninth prize.

Yesterday brought many orders from various parts of the State for an additional supply of papers of the 10th. The edition was entirely sold out the day of issue. A few inquiries were also made as to when the trips would have to be taken. In most instances, the successful contestants will be able to choose their own time, either in August or September, but there are one or two hotels The Times-Dispatch could only get accommodations at during the month of September.
